2. OBJECTIVES:

The main goal of this grant is to design, implement and evaluate a versatile epidemic protocol simulator capable of providing accurate results for a variety of real-world scenarios. Consideration will also be given to creating a trade-off between accuracy and scalability, so that simulation experiments will be fast and efficient at simulating systems with tens of thousands of nodes.

3. BRIEF PRESENTATION OF THE WORK PROGRAMME AND TRAINING:

Evaluation of the scalability of existing simulation tools and selection of the most appropriate one;
Proposal of a simulation model of at least 2 epidemic protocols existing in the literature;
Implementation of the simulation model in the chosen simulation tool;
Experimental evaluation of the model and refinement of the proposed model and analysis of the results.
The tasks described in this work plan require the application and development of concepts and techniques in the area of Computer Engineering typically taught in curricular units that compose the core of the syllabus of Integrated Masters in Computer Engineering or Masters in Computer Engineering.

4. REQUIRED PROFILE:

Admission requirements:

BSc Degree in Informatics Engineering or similar.

The awarding of the fellowship is dependent on the applicants' enrolment in study cycle or non-award courses of Higher Education Institutions.

Preference factors:

Knowledge of epidemic protocols; Experience with discrete event simulation tools in Python.

Minimum requirements:

Knowledge in Python programming language.

5. EVALUATION OF APPLICATIONS AND SELECTION PROCESS:

Selection criteria and corresponding valuation: the first phase comprises the Academic Evaluation (AC), based on the criteria referred to in Article 12 of the Regulations for Grants of INESC TEC, while the second phase comprehends the Individual Interview (EI). All factors are evaluated on a scale of 0 to 100, taking into account the applicants' merit, suitability and conformity with the preference factors.

The weight of the AC factors are as follows: Academic Qualifications (FA, 50%), Scientific Publications (PC, 10%), Experience (EX, 30%) and Motivation Letter (CM, 10%).

Candidates who score less than 50 points in the AC average will be considered excluded on absolute merit. The top five candidates approved on absolute merit will be qualified for the individual interview. The Final Grade (CF) is obtained by the weighted average of AC (80%) and EI (20%).
