2. OBJECTIVES:

The work to be developed under this grant has as its main objective the systematic study and classification of different eBPF libraries (e.g., BCC, bpftrace, libbpf, Aya), as well as their experimental evaluation under real workloads, analyzing functionalities, use cases, applicability, and their impact on fidelity, performance, and resource usage.

3. BRIEF PRESENTATION OF THE WORK PROGRAMME AND TRAINING:

Systematic study and classification of eBPF libraries (e.g., BCC, bpftrace, libbpf, Aya), based on functionalities (e.g., portability, helper functions, dependencies), use cases (e.g., observability, enforcement), and areas of applicability (e.g., networking, storage, security).

Experimental evaluation of a representative set of these libraries under real workloads, measuring the fidelity of the collected information, as well as their impact on performance and resource usage (CPU, memory, energy). The tasks described in this working plan demand the application and development of concepts and techniques in the area of Software Engineering, which are usually introduced in curricular units included in the curricula of the Integrated MSc in Informatics Engineering or the MSc in Informatics Engineering studies.

4. REQUIRED PROFILE:

Admission requirements:
